IN APPRECIATION

I cannot thank you as I would
For all you've done for me;
I cannot find the words I should
To tell you fittingly.

Your kindness has meant so much
That only One I know
Can e'er repay a service such
As this one here below.

Therefore to Him I delegate
What I cannot express.
May God repay you--early, late,
For all your kindness.

Blue and Gold

The Blue and Gold took first place for the sixth consecutive year in the national contest for school publications at the 29th annual convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association at Columbia University March 12-13-14. More than 1,300 entries participated in the contest from public and non-public school in twenty-five states and several foreign countries.

Roland Bujold and Edward Guerra, feature editors, participated in the convention, the former serving as chairman of a roundtable discussion. Both editors were present at the luncheon for 3,500 student delegates at the Waldorf-Astoria, which marked the close of the convention activities. The boys stayed at the Paris Hotel near Columbia University and arranged their trip to make the best possible use of their five-day stay in New York.

The Bernardian newspaper also participated in the sixth annual meeting of the Catholic Business Education Association held at Holy Cross College in Worcester, by displaying a pictorial project entitled, "The Editors Meet the Deadline."

The editors will also participate in the press conference for New England Catholic high schools to be held at Merrimack College Saturday, May 16. The Blue and Gold will enter this year's best articles, editorials, features, etc. in the literary contest conducted by the Catholic School Press Association at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Joseph Galli and Judith Keaveny, co-editors, enjoy working on the Blue and Gold.

As the days of our senior year speed rapidly into the past, the tendency to cast a look back grows upon us. We recall the grown-up feeling of those first junior days when homerooms and teachers were new. We remember the enthusiasm with which we sought membership in so many clubs, the thrill of presenting successfully our part of the one-act-play entertainment and seeking a part, however small, in the Christmas play. After the mid-years came the excitement of planning a junior-senior reception which we hoped would place all previous ones in the shadows. The intermurals found our girls the champion basketball players. How proud we were! Then, how long we had awaited it -- that invitation to the prom, or the, "Yes, I would love to go," which spread sunshine and music about the most ordinary chores.

Memories! How beautiful you are!

Chemistry Exhibit

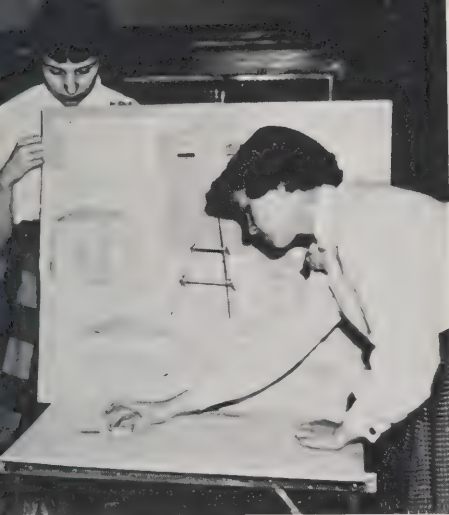

Elizabeth Beike adds a finishing touch while Rene Bertrand and Edward Guerra make sure the camera is in good order.

Yvonne Legassy and Judith Connors busy in the lab, while Josephine Ficarra watches the outcome.

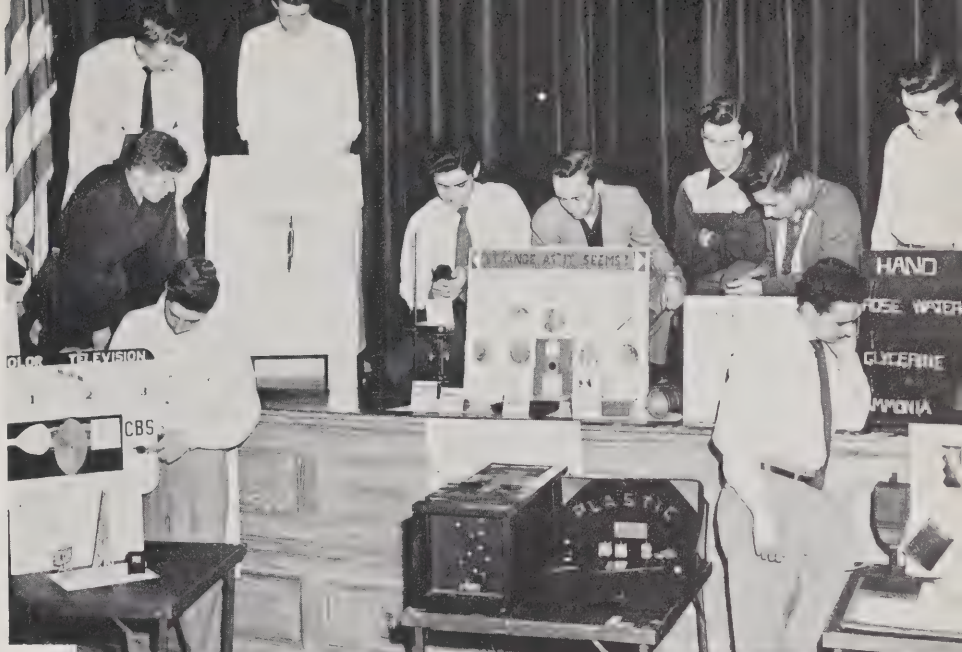

Sally Bastarache, Marjorie Killelea, Barbara St. Arnaud, Lois Mulkeen, Nancy Ethier, Margaret Moran and Josephine Ficarra are intrigued by the results of the experiment.

Various interests were displayed when the chemistry exhibit was announced soon after the beginning of the second semester. The girls turned to soaps and creams, dyes, inks and lotions which gave evidence of their practical bend of mind. The boys chose the frash process, the functions of the camera, electronic rotation, nitrogen industry relationship processes, color television and so forth. When the deadline was reached and the contributions displayed, the interest and appreciation of the faculty and student body amply compensated for the hours of labor entailed.

Jacqueline Doucet, Yvonne Lagassey, Judith Keaveny and Yvette Marcoux make certain that Judy's project is secure.

Business Training

Constance Allaire types a stencil from dictation by GERALDA BRIDEAU as the first step toward the production of a school hymnal.

Theresa Boniface, as the efficient future secretary, takes dictation from Paul Nourie, a potential business man.

Janet Pelletier and Collette Landry acquire skill in filing.

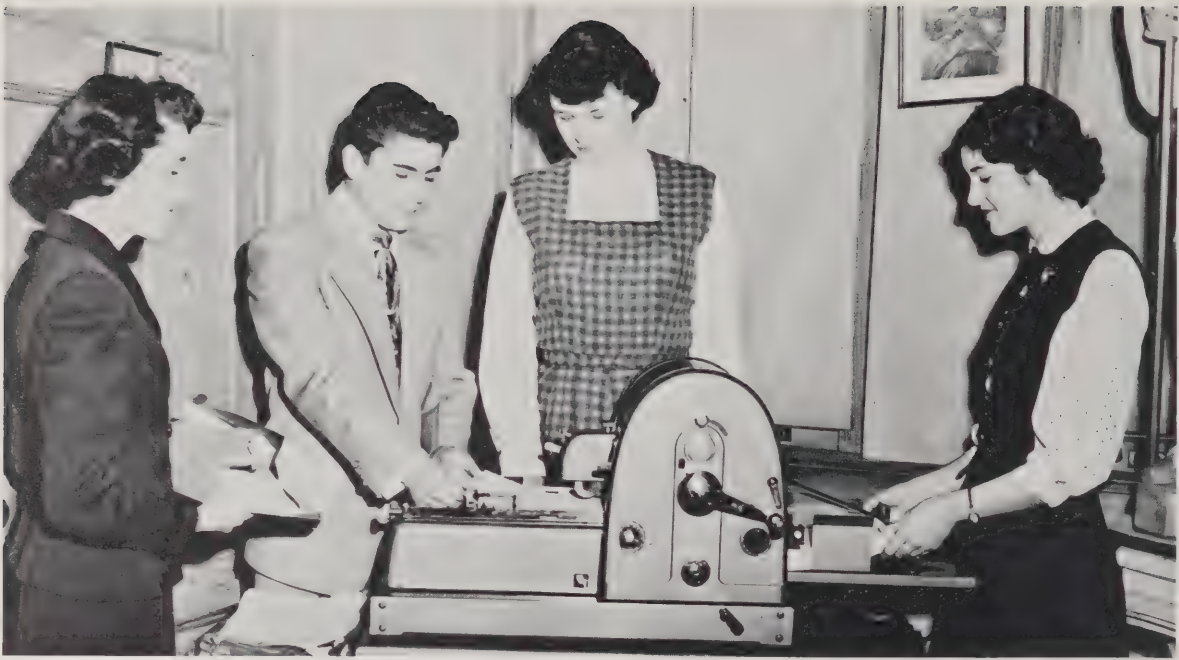

Nancy Guilmette uses the mimeoscope to produce the attractive cover for the Bernardian hymnal with Shirley Roberts and Richard Finneron assisting her.

Assembling and stapling the thirty-two page hymn book was ably performed by Louis Cormier, Rita Roberts, Phyllis Tata, Jeanne Gordon and Doris St. Jean.

The preparation of the hymn book gave practice in mimeographing as shown by Lucille Forest, Kenneth Bujold, Mary MacMillan and Isabelle Valera.

Working out a complete bookkeeping cycle found Jeanne Gordon, Rosemarie Boniface, and Corinne Devarences making use of two types of adding machines.

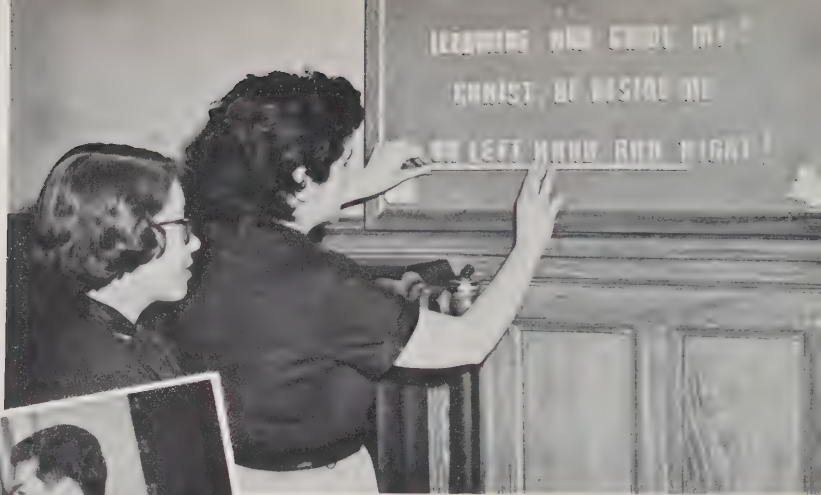

In connection with the bookkeeping cycle Doris St. Jean has completed the payroll and is filling the pay envelopes.

Viewing with satisfaction the completed geography exhibit are Robert Cormier, Ronaldo Thibodeau, Renneth Bonner, Carol Bussiere, Constance Mancuso, Rita Sylvain, Louise Patient, Joyce Kostowski, Betty McDonald, and Douglas White who is seated.

Here and There

Ghislaine Fluet learns how Charlene O'Leary arranges the bulletin board.

The senior class officers spotted on the corridor.

Moments are gay when Robert Ducharme plays and Armand Vachon, Louis DiRusso, Paul Fluet, William Guazzo, Paul Bessette, Ronald Belliveau and Paul Hanney gather around the piano.

Maurice Caron, Donald Collette, Lucy Boucher, Corine Devarennnes, Janet Badagliacca, and James Fletcher reverently admire the crib.

Bulletin boards are favorite points for congregating. Ghislaine Fluet, Cecile Dupuis, Robert Baldarelli, Lionel Boulay, Elizabeth Beike, and Theresa Collette seem to enjoy it.

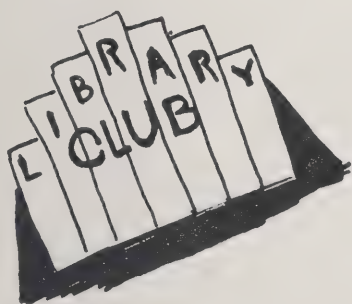

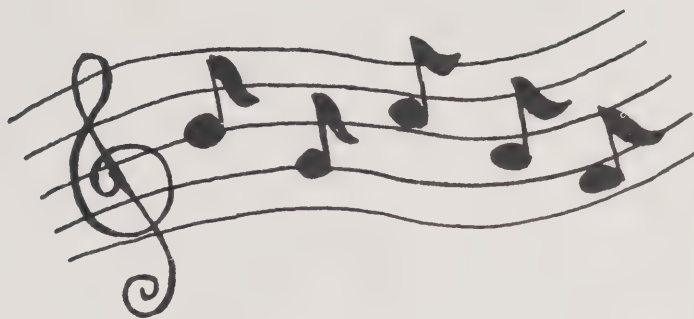

These members of the Dramatic Club were ever on hand to contribute to the success of club activities. To the senior class play they rendered valuable service as ushers. 'Blossom Time'

Friendliest Night of the Year

Tuesday evening, May 13, 1952, was a memorable one when the juniors gave the seniors a reception which neither group will ever forget. The theme was special, "Blossom Time." The guests of honor were special, Right Reverend Monsignor John A. Martin, the newly appointed pastor of St. Bernard's parish; Reverend John J. O'Brien, diocesan Superintendent of Schools; Reverend Bernard J. Conlin, Principal of our school and Reverend John F. Canill, Athletic Moderator.

The hostesses served a delicious lunch on particularly attractive tables. The rapid disappearance of sandwiches, ice cream, cakes and cokes bore witness to the quality of the menu.

The decorating Committee transformed the gym into a veritable fairyland, with trellises, garden walls, flowers and bluebirds. A shrine to Our Lady of Fatima was erected to commemorate the feast.

The entertaining committee presented skits, specialties, and a fashion show which kept the seniors rocking with laughter. Dancing followed.

Father Conlin invites Monsignor Martin to say the grace.

Last minute touches by efficient workers.

The hostesses who contributed largely to the success of the evening included: Claire Saulnier, Lucille Forest, Dolores Charrette, Phyllis Tata, Jeanne Gordon and Sally Bastarache, Standing: Lena Anzaldi, Janet Leger, and Helen Garvey, seated.

and so does Margot Morin.

This year the Home Economics department organized its club. Meetings were held monthly in the early evening giving members a chance to act as hostesses. The first and ever memorable of these was a weiner roast, and a model of home entertainment. The month being October, the Rosary in honor of our Blessed Mother was recited by the group. Then came the fun preparing the "dogs," coffee, doughnuts and relishes. Last but not least was the feast. Would that all club meetings could end so tastily.

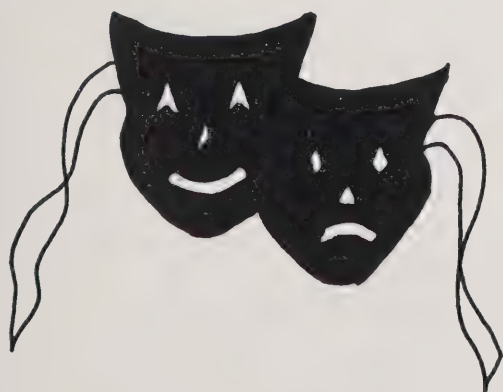

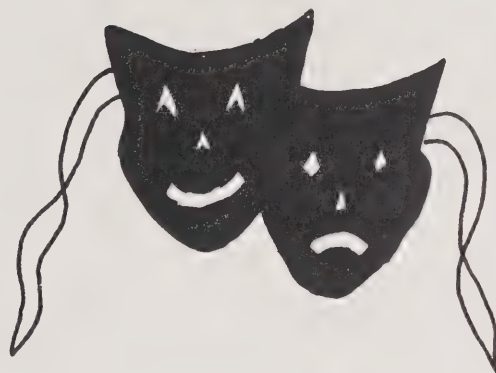

The most enjoyable part of the day.

Family Trios

Considering the members of the student body of St. Bernard's one happy afternoon, it occurred to us that many students were brothers and sisters. Referring to the files we found that the number of families having two children attending this school was too large to list. From there the families of three were checked and the results were interesting -- too interesting to keep secret. St. Bernard's can boast of 12 groups of 3's representing Fitchburg, South Fitchburg, Cleg-horn, Leominster and Lunenburg.

Joseph Galli, a junior, with his twin sisters Anna and Mary, freshmen.

The senior class boasted of two brothers, twin sisters, and two sets of brother and sister. Standing; Evelyn and Edmond Keohan, Edgar and Raymond Bonitz and Richard and Eileen Shields. Seated: Constance and Collette Landry.

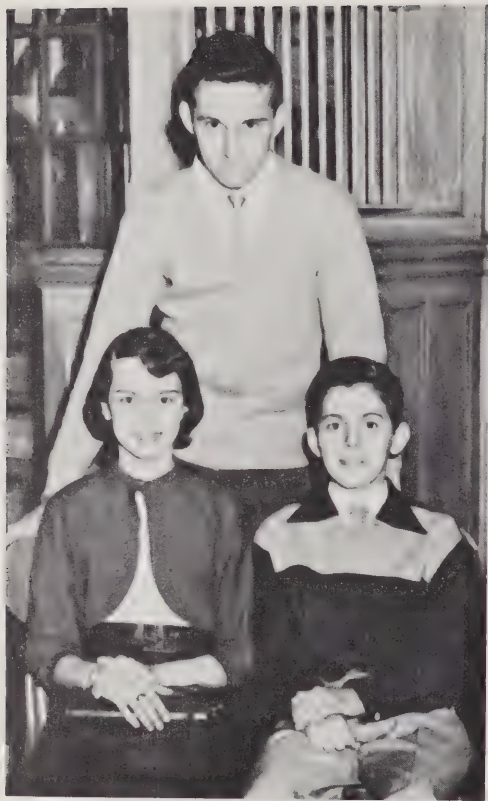

Phyllis, a junior, and Nancy a freshman, with John, the sophomore, complete our Kozloski family.

From Leominster we have this group--Rita McDermott, a junior, standing, and Judith, freshman, seated. Austin, a sophomore was not present.

Three family groups are shown together. The Pelletier sisters are on the left, the Grimley family center, and the Chapdelaine sisters are on the right. They are left; Pauline the junior, standing with Janet the senior, while Constance, the sophomore is seated. Center; Sarah and Patricia, freshman and sophomore respectively, are standing; James, a senior, is seated. Right; Suzanne, the sophomore, and Rachelle, the freshman, standing; and Annette the senior, seated.

Rosalie, standing, and Pauline Badagliacca, both freshmen students together with Janet, a senior, who was not photographed; complete another group of three sisters.

Stranger than fiction is the fact that Robert and Laurence are twins of this group--the towering Robert stands behind Joseph, his freshman brother, and his twin, Laurence. The twins are sophomores.

"Boys' paradise," down by the back door.

Joyce Hassett, Diane Maloney, Anne O' Connor, Shirley Rivers, Carol Montagna and Carol Proietti enjoy a snack.

The Last lap.

Back Row: E. Kukkula, E. Keohan, J. Tocci, R. Breton, B. McGuirl, A. Brasili, S. Navaroli, W. Guazzo, J. O'Connor, V. Burnell. Front: Coach Guazzo, C. Buckley, J. Plamondon, P. Dextraze and J. Sweeney.

Basketball

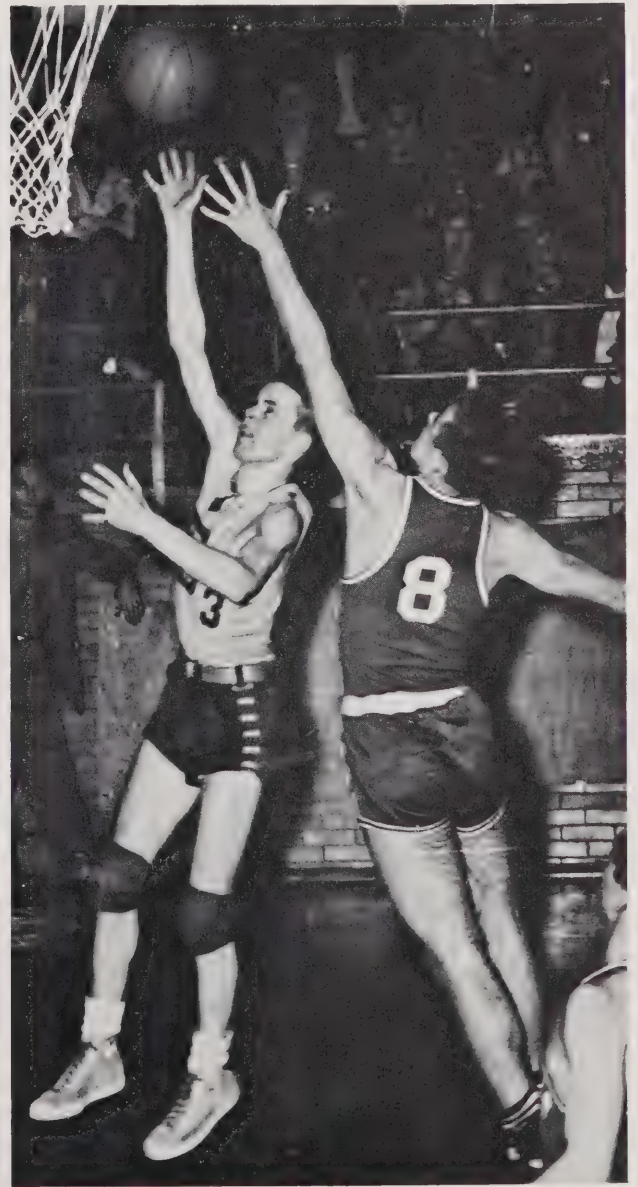

Coach Guazzo gives some final advice to his players.

Members of the Varisty team include, first row: G. Aubuchon, B. McGuirl, J. O'Connor, T. Martin, R. Shields, R. Breton, A. Brasili. Second Row: Father Cahill, moderator, Paul Devin, E. Keohan, R. Shaw, P. Dextraze, D. Lavin and Coach Guazzo.

Animation and concern are registered on the faces of Bernardians as they watch a hard fought victory.

Opposition proving strenuous, Bernardians watch their chance to covet the ball.

Cheerleaders

Joyce, Janet, Judy, Barb, Carol and Connie skillfully perform the "locomotive."

Front: Constance Boucher, Carol Slattery, Janet Leger, Rosemarie Laino. Back: Barbara St. Arnaud, Jacqueline Brisson, Joyce Morrilly and Judith Murnik, Captain.

Agility with smoothness describes Barb's jump.

Kneeling: Constance Boucher, Judith Murnik, Janet Leger. Standing: Joyce Morrilly, Barbara St. Arnaud and Carol Slattery.

Janet, noted for graceful action.
